17 The Swami seems to have had an attack of influenza and is said to have got over it. He is however much depressed owing to the loss of the jewels and some often it does in connection with the matt soon after his succession

18. Though the matt has an income of about 5 or 6 thousand Rupees, it has not many Brahman disciples and almost no learned men among them. If the succession is to be confined to the Matt Sishyas which seems to be the desire of some of the leading disciples, the choice is very limited

19. The accompanying statement shows the qualifications and eligibility of the Candidates proposed by the late and the present Swamis. The head of them is said to be Nijagal Subbacharlu who was however until recently in Amritsar and is even now a Govt Pensioner having retired as an Overseer P.W.D. He is a cousin of Mr. Nijagal Venkata Rao Ex. Dewan Settler Some Pundits see fit to go to Venkataramana etc.

And Hdavanhalli Seshacharlu and they are of opinion that the fact of one having become a hunkitha does not stand in the way of one's succession to a Math and the man's personal Conduct, learning and character need alone be considered. It is reported that there are instances of hunkitha Sannyasis succeeding to even more important Mathes.

Subject:—

Nomination of a successor to the Pitha of Kundapur Sri Vyasaraya Swami Matt at Abbur in the Channapatna Taluk.

These papers relate to the question of the nomination of a successor to the Pitha of Kundapur Sri Vyasaraya Swami Matt at Abbur in the Channapatna Taluk.

2. Sri Lakshmi Prasanna Tirtha Sri Padangalavaru, the Mathadhipathi, whose succession was recognized in Government Proceedings No.602-11/Muz.F.215-16-22 dated 7th September 1917, is reported to have had an attack of Influenza though much better now; but, on account of his generally weak health and mental depression at the theft, still undetected, of some of the sacred and valuable articles connected with the Puja in the Matt, soon after his succession, he has been pressing for the recognition of a successor to the Pitha to be inducted by him into the Sanyasa Asrama whenever it may be found necessary. Four names were suggested in this connection, two of whom were mentioned by the late Swami in connection with succession to himself.

3. The Muzrai Superintendent was directed to enquire into the qualifications of the candidates and a statement submitted by him showing the qualifications and eligibility of the candidates is on the file He is of opinion that Vedamurthi Nijagal Subbarayacharya is the best among them, both from the point of view of learning and attainments as well as personal character and habits, and that though at one time he held a Government appointment in the Public Works Department as an Overseer and is now a pensioner, he is yet not disqualified on that score.

4. The Muzrai Superintendent's opinion appears to be well considered and I support the nomination of Vedamurthi Nijagal Subbarayacharya for the Pitha.

5. It is not, however, under contemplation to induct the nominee into Sanyasa Asrama immediately and under the circumstances, it will be sufficient if the Swami is informed that the succession of Vedamurthi Subbarayacharya to the Pitha will meet with approval when the occasion for it arises. The proposed action is in accordance with the precedent followed in the case of the nomination of the present Swami himself.
